Holiday 2018

Dark witchcraft and auspicious forces influenced this collection. Inspired by the rich draping of velvet with intricate lace, these looks uniquely combine sumptuous fabrics with ready-to-wear silhouettes. Deep reds and purples work together to create versatile holiday looks. The woman of this collection knows her style and yet is not afraid to take a risk. Wearers of these garments feel chic while remaining age appropriate.

Fabrics include velvet, lace, and satin. These rich fabrics provide the wearer a sense of comfort while giving a luxurious feel. Smooth satin and soft velvet cascade over the body, interacting with lace in unexpected ways. Layering is a key component with these looks, and wearers should not be afraid to mix and match as they please. Ultimately, the interplay of draped velvet with satin and lace creates a comfortable, elegant feel. Beautiful darkness serves to empower yet protect.
